

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS27534 / H0405

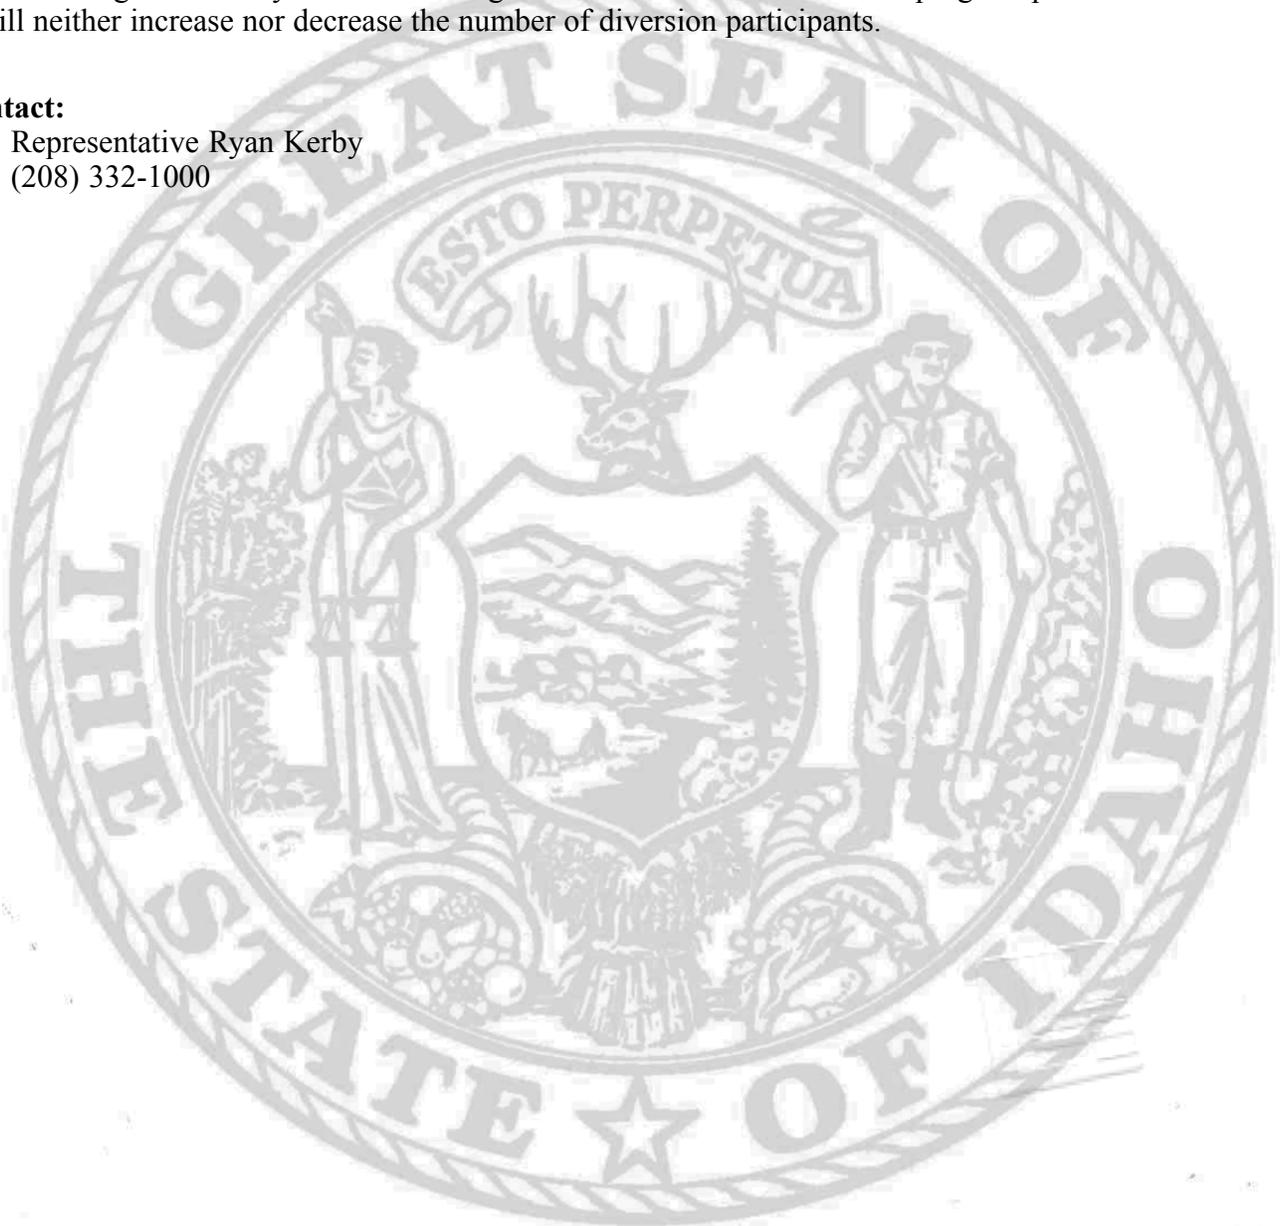

This legislation ensures that drivers who hold a commercial drivers license are not allowed to be put on a DUI Diversion program. This complies with federal commercial driving regulations.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation does not have any anticipated impact on the General Fund, or to any county or other government fund. This legislation only clarifies the original intent of the DUI diversion program passed into law in 2019. It will neither increase nor decrease the number of diversion participants.
